

Nisei Week Queen Candidate Qualifications

Age:	Candidate must be at least 20 years old at the time of submitting an application with a potential sponsor and not older than 26 years old on the day of the coronation, August 10, 2024.
Citizenship:	Candidate must have been (A) born or naturalized in the United States or (B) legally living in the United States as a permanent resident.
Biological Ethnicity:	Candidate must be a minimum of fifty percent (50%) biological Japanese ancestry. Candidate will supply supporting documentation, including parents' names and birth certificate, if requested.
Marital Status	Candidate must not be married, divorced, or separated, and must not have children. Candidate may be engaged to be married, but in the event that she is awarded a Nisei Week title she must remain unmarried for the duration of her reign.
Conflicts of Interest:	Candidate, as a member of the Nisei Week Court, must not enroll or participate in any other beauty or popularity contests from the date of submission of the Nisei Week Queen Candidate Application and Profile (the "Application") to the official completion of the Nisei Week Court's reign (Coronation of the following year), without the express written consent of the Nisei Week Foundation.
Eligibility:	Candidate's Application must be sponsored by an organization recognized by the Nisei Week Foundation ("Sponsor").
Entry Fee:	$500 (paid by sponsoring organization)